SUMMARY

Crypto content writer and marketer with five years of professional writing, starting in the newsroom at Znews and Robb Report Vietnam and moving full-time into Web3 in 2022. I write whitepapers, product docs, research articles and social copy in English and Vietnamese, and I plan the campaigns that put that content in front of users. At NTK Software, I built a community from zero to nearly 50,000 members and supported a platform that reached $19M in total contract value.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Content Marketing Specialist

Apr 2024 - Present

NTK Software

Projects: iFlux Global (crypto installment platform), Oculus and Polymole (AI analytics for Polymarket prediction markets)

- Plan and run marketing across X, Telegram, Discord, Galxe and Zealy to grow users for each product.
- Set content strategy against short and long-term goals; write posts, threads, blogs and partner announcements.
- Write technical documentation: whitepapers, user guides, tutorials, and CoinGecko and CoinMarketCap listing descriptions.
- Produce KOL pitch decks and video scripts for product launches.
- Design points campaigns for Oculus and Polymole with referral, leaderboard and NFT reward mechanics.
- Collect user feedback and pass it to the product and web teams to shape each release.

Key results

- Built the community from zero to nearly 50,000 members across X, Telegram and Discord, with 300+ KOLs joining the Ambassador Program.
- Drove 3,000 active platform participants; users opened 122,707 contracts with a total contract value of $19M.
- Grew website traffic from 1,165 to 15,324 visits within one month.

Content Marketing Specialist

Apr 2024 - Mar 2025

Kardia

- Ran marketing plans on X, Telegram, Discord and Galxe to grow users.
- Wrote whitepapers, user guides and tutorials, checking technical accuracy with the development team.
- Helped design engagement features and created text, image and video content for the community.
- Identified, built and maintained partner relationships.

Key results (community events and campaigns for Bitendo and AIAI Digital Twin)

- 100,000+ monthly active users and 150,000 game players.
- X followers grew from 1,000 to 15,000.

Content & Marketing Collaborator (Freelance)

Feb 2024 - Present

TCX Capital, OMarket, Monbase

- Lead content for TCX Capital, a Vietnamese crypto trading community, including the 2026 launch of TCX Indicator Pro, a TradingView indicator for gold, BTC and ETH.
- Build marketing plans for community-driven user acquisition and engagement.
- Write whitepapers, pitch decks, company profiles, landing pages and proposals.
- Create blog posts, social updates, videos and webinar content for each community.
- Source and work with KOLs and partners to widen reach; feed user insights back into product and web updates.

Web Content Editor

Apr 2023 - Jan 2024

Tradecoinvn

Website of one of Vietnam's largest crypto trading communities

- Set up and ran the website content in its launch phase, from structure to the first article library.
- Wrote and edited explainers and analysis on new protocols and market trends (Magi, Scroll, Memeland, Web3 gaming).
- Handled SEO for the site: keyword research, on-page optimization and internal linking.

Content Writer & Editor
